

Sharonda Armour

Sharonda D. D. Armour

Born in Philadelphia, PA, Sharonda faced profound loss early in life when her mother passed away at the age of two. Having never known her father, she was raised by her grandmother, who instilled in her a strong foundation of faith through the church. Growing up in a strict household, she sought independence and discipline by joining the military immediately after graduating high school.

Through life's many challenges and obstacles, Sharonda's unwavering faith in Jesus Christ has been her guiding force, allowing her to overcome adversity and emerge with a powerful testimony. Asst. Pastor Sharonda Armour was saved and received the baptism of the Holy Spirit at the age of 14.

Appointed and anointed, she has served in ministry for many years both inside and outside of the organized church. Gifted in the prophetic, she is called to minister healing to women everywhere, particularly those who are broken and have suffered abuse. As a passionate worshipper, she directs and leads the worship ministry within the church, as well as the Women's Ministry, WildFlowers. With a heart for mentorship and service, she has dedicated her life to helping young women navigate similar struggles.
